

Houston Bar Association Recognizes Partner Angelica Hernandez of the Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP Law Firm

The Houston Bar Association (HBA) President announced the recipient of this year's the HBA President's Award, Angelica Hernandez, Co-chair of the HBA Judicial Polls Committee and a partner in the law firm of Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP. This committee oversees the publication of both the Judicial Evaluation Questionnaire and the Judicial Candidate Qualification Questionnaire for attorneys considering elected office. Linebarger Goggan Partner Leah Stolar commended Angelica on this achievement and said, "This is just one more example of the fine work Angelica does representing the firm inside and outside the courtroom."

Angelica was appointed as a HBA Ambassador as well; the Ambassadors create awareness among Harris County Bar attorneys of the importance of bar membership and volunteering. The Linebarger Goggan Management Committee commended Angelica for her work with the Houston Bar and the example of leadership she provides to her peers.
